
CURIODYSSEY'S POLICY FOR SERVICE ANIMALS

Your service animal must meet all these requirements to be at CuriOdyssey. By law, the definition of service animal is a dog or miniature horse.

1. YOUR SERVICE ANIMAL

- Is required because of a disability.
- Is trained to perform a specific task to assist with your disability.
- Will stay leashed via harness or collar while it is at the facility.
- Is properly vaccinated and licensed by the county.
- Is subject to all state and local animal health regulations and laws while at the facility.

2. YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES

- I will clean up after my animal if it eliminates while at this facility.
- I will keep my service animal at least eight feet away from any animal that is being handled by volunteer or staff person.
- I will not enter the Walkthrough Aviary with my service animal. *
- I will not stop or linger in front of the bobcat exhibit with my service animal.
- I will not leave my service animal unattended in my car.

3. CAUTIONS

- There may be risks associated with bringing your service animal onto the facility grounds, like possibility of disease transmission to your service animal from zoo animals or vice versa.
- It is possible your service animal will frighten the zoo's exhibit animals or vice versa. This could result in harm to animals, zookeepers or others.
- If you attempt to bring your service animal into the Walkthrough Aviary or linger in front of the bobcat exhibit, you will be asked to leave CuriOdyssey.

* In the event that you wish to enter the Walkthrough Aviary, CuriOdyssey will provide an animal keeper to wait with your animal outside of the Aviary while you go inside.
